

BLACK & WHITE

Newspace Center for Photography invites photographers to submit images for our Annual Themed Exhibition with the theme "Black & White". This year we want to investigate and celebrate the beauty of black and white photography in all its glory, exploring the many methods and techniques available to photographers today, be it alternative process, digital, or traditional film.

Portland photographer and Newspace Executive Director Chris Bennett will be selecting images for the exhibition.

The entry fee is $10 per image and you may enter as many images as you like. Newspace members may enter two images at no charge.

Members must fill out the entry form and submit it with your images on a CD. All other entries may use this form or our new online entry system found on our Call for Entries page. Entry materials will not be returned.

If using the mail in form, the images need to be 300 dpi jpg files no larger than 7 inches in its longest dimension. Each jpg file must be titled with your last name, first initial, "underscore" and the correlating number to match the entry form. For instance Mike Smith would be SmithM_1.jpg. The CD itself must be labeled with the photographer's name. Materials will not be returned. Sorry no slides or prints.

Instructions and guidelines for online entries will be found once you log into the online system.

Entries must be received by (not postmarked) Friday, December 16th 2011 6pm. Selected images will be on display in the Newspace gallery February 3rd through 26th 2012, with an opening reception Friday, February 3rd 6-9pm.

Those accepted into the show will be notified by End of December 2011 and will be posted on our website.
